

Stepping well past the reaches of our first Grand Rendition, this second cuvee takes a regal stand, leading the Tirridis collection in quality and authenticity. This wine is composed of the heart of our most defining grapes to showcase the purest expression of our sage brush blanketed, sun kissed terroir of Washington's Rattlesnake Hills AVA. Polished by three vintages of evolution in bottle, a brilliant golden hue in the glass manifests an ultra-fine bead and impressively textural body.

NOTES

Initial notes of key lime, candied ginger, and crushed oystershell waltz into baked Meyer lemon, pineapple, and crumbly shortbread upon each sip. Finishing with a meticulously balanced, electric acidity- this is a gilded wine that embraces and emphasizes the promise & beauty of Washington state.
